History: Years F–2

What are the stories?
- History:
  - What did your parents and grandparents do as children?
  - What did you and other people do as children?
  - What did other people in the past do as children?

What questions do we have?
- Pedagogical questions:
  - What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?
  - What surprises you about the lives of others in the past?
  - What do other people remember about the past?

What can we find out about?
- Using spoken, written and visual sources to find out about the lives of people in the past.

How can we use what we find out?
- Draw conclusions about the lives and experiences of people in the past.
- Identify and respond to a point of view about the past.

Pedagogical questions:
- What do you wonder about?
- What do other people remember about?
- What events do you remember?
- What confuses you about?
- What excites you about?
- What surprises you about?
- What is the same about?
- What is different about?
- Why do you remember?
- What else do you want to know?
- What do people use when they talk about?
- How can we use this?
- What is still here from?
- Why do they remember?
- What else do you want to know?
- What do other people remember?
- What do you remember?
- How can we communicate this?

Example: Year 1

Differences and similarities between students’ daily lives and life during their parents’ and grandparents’ childhoods, including family traditions, leisure time and communications.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>What games and activities do you like to play and do?</th>
<th>What do your parents and grandparents remember about the games and activities they played when they were children?</th>
<th>What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</th>
<th>What are the stories?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Who can you ask to find out what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>What can you use these photographs, stories and objects to find out about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>What questions do we have?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How do they feel about it now?</td>
<td>What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>What do other people remember about the past?</td>
<td>What can we use to find out?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What do you want to share about your parents or grandparents played as children?</td>
<td>What happens in this photograph? What are the people doing?</td>
<td>What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>What can we use what we find out about?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Is there another photograph of people doing this activity?</td>
<td>What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>How can we make sense of this?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What is the same and different about the way people in the photographs are doing the activity?</td>
<td>What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>How do they feel about it now?</td>
<td>How can we communicate this?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How would this photograph be different if it was taken today?</td>
<td>What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>What do they feel about it now?</td>
<td>Develop narratives to share thinking about the lives of others in the past through role play, written, oral, graphic or digital forms.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What do you think this object is?</td>
<td>What do you wonder about what life was like for your parents and grandparents when they were children?</td>
<td>What do they feel about it now?</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>